

If you, or someone you know, have a 4-year old (turning age 5 before August 1, 2020) who will be entering kindergarten in the Fall of 2020, Gearing Up for Kindergarten is an important program to know about.

Gearing Up for Kindergarten is a 3-week school readiness and parent education program that meets on Thursday nights. The program will begin on Thursday, January 30, 2020.

Gearing up for Kindergarten will be held at Central Cass Elementary School. Parents and children attend the event together. Parents learn with their children as they explore science, math, sensory development, motor skills and reading activities in a fun and engaging environment.

The session will run from 5:00-6:15 p.m. on the following three meeting dates:

January 30th and February 6th and 13th

The sessions will include:

- Parent and Child Group Activities
- Separate Child Activities
- Separate Parent Sessions
- Please note there will be no child care offered this year

This program is FREE – Registration will open on our website homepage on Monday, December 16th at 9:00 am. Seating is limited to the first 75 students!
Registration deadline is January 15th.
